National Center for Public Policy Research

National Center for Public Policy Research (NCPFR), a communications and research foundation, fights to educate Americans about such topics as Illegal Immigration, Retirement Security, Government Accountability, National Defense and National Sovereignty. They have worked diligently to bring attention to such national issues as getting the U.S. out of the U.N., Defeating the Law of the Seas Treaty (L.O.S.T), and abolishing the Inheritance Tax (Death Tax). This list would be a great test for any U.S. sovereignty, immigration, conservative, or charitable mailer!!!

This is a nationwide list of conservative donors.
