Veterans for Victory PAC

Led by true Vietnam Veterans who were on the front lines then and now. VetPAC raised over 1 million dollars in less than 6 months for its cause, which is to help like-minded candidates running for U. S. Senate and Congress. VetPAC's hot-button issue was making the public aware of John Kerry's disgraceful military service in Vietnam, and how electing him president, would have been detrimental for our country. With John Kerry defeated, they are now setting their sights on media elite.

This is a must test for all military, veteran's groups, non-profits, and all conservative candidates!
